New England's Monthly Numismatic Catalog

Special Savings On All Coins This Month

New England has just completed grading and cataloging all the coins our buyers purchased at the 1979 A.N.A. Convention — and we've found that our high-quality inventory is now larger than it's ever been. To help you take quick advantage of this inventory, our numismatists will be offering all of the coins listed in this month's Inventory Selections at special reduced prices. Please note, however, that we can only offer coins at these prices through October 5. So call your New England Professional Numismatist at our toll-free number today.

Also in this issue is a new numismatic feature: a select offering of rare United States Currency. Because of the great beauty and value of rare U.S. Currency, its popularity among collectors is growing daily. Now, and in future months, Inventory Selections readers will be able to purchase U.S. Currency that has been personally reviewed by our own professionals.

Some last-minute additions have been made to our coin listings this month. If you can't find what you're looking for under our regular "coin type" headings, scan our special "Last Minute Additions" columns on pages 16 and 18.

Just a reminder: Any purchase of $150 or more from Inventory Selections automatically entitles you to a free 1-year (12-issue) subscription. A purchase of $275 or more entitles you to 2 years (24 issues). In addition, please remember that Three Cent Silver now appears after Two Cent Pieces; and Trade Dollars now appear after Seated Dollars. These changes have been made so that our coin listings conform to the new 1980 Guide Book of United States Coins.

THE EXTREMELY RARE 1910-D
INDIAN HEAD HALF EAGLE IN MS-65

Our September Special Value offering is an extremely choice group of 1910-D Indian Head Half Eagles in true MS-65. Experienced collectors know that the 1910-D is rarely found above MS-60. New England, however, has located a group of 1910-D's that have lain carefully packaged and buried since the date of their issue, leaving them untouched by human hands for over half a century.

Here is an outstanding opportunity to own a practically irreplaceable American rarity. Each specimen regularly sells for $6,950.00. Now, purchase your 1910-D in MS-65 for only . . . $6,000.00

Order your 1910-D by calling your New England Account Executive today at our toll-free number: 800-225-6794 (in Mass: 617-227-8800).

Bob Bernier

When speaking with Professional Numismatist Bob Bernier, there are three things you'll notice. Bob listens intently to every word spoken. The corners of his mouth rise periodically on the verge of a smile. And when he speaks, he delivers his message in a relaxed, polite, and totally professional tone. Perhaps this is why Bob has gained such a loyal following among New England's clientele — and why a new New England customer wrote to us last April that Bob "has treated me as if I had dealt with him and your company for years. He is a professional in every way and dealing with him is a pleasure."

Born in Worcester, Massachusetts, Bob's first exposure to collectible investments occurred during his childhood. Bob's grandfather, whom he visited often, lived in a house filled with antiques. "I remember being fascinated by the thought that all those old, rare pieces of brass and crystal were worth money." But Bob's grandfather never studied the collectibles market as his grandson would do years later. "My grandfather would sell pieces to local collectors for $50 each. They must have been worth $100 to $300." Bob smiles at the memory and slowly shakes his head.

Today, Bob is still fascinated by antiques, but his first love is rare coins. "After graduating from college (Bob holds a B.B.A. in Marketing from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst), I dabbled in accounting, sold insurance, held several sales positions. That taught me about finance and investments. But until I started selling coins, I was never satisfied with what I was doing — because I couldn't believe in the products I was dealing with." For that reason, Bob describes the day he joined New England as "a dream come true. With coins, I don't have to convince anyone to buy. I simply give collectors the straight facts and let the facts do the convincing for me."

Bob currently lives in Revere, Massachusetts, with his wife of 3 months, Rosemary. He enjoys gardening, visiting antique shops and speculating about the future of rare coins. "I was talking with a friend the other day who knew of a bank possibly interested in buying rare coins. It wasn't a big bank, but who knows? It's very possible that a Chemical or CitiBank might someday start demanding coins. Do you realize what that would do to the value of current collections?" Bob lets out a breath and rolls his eyes. "It's awesome to think about. It really is."

United States Currency

This month, New England Rare Coin Galleries brings Inventory Selections readers our first offerings of rare United States Currency. Each specimen listed below has been collated according to "Friedberg Number" as designated in the 9th edition of Robert Friedberg's Paper Money of the United States (Krause Publications, Iola, Wisconsin). Grades have been assigned according to the grading system you'll find below.

We're sure you'll find many items of interest in this offering and we look forward to bringing you more United States Currency in future issues of Inventory Selections. To order any of these items — or for more information on U.S. Currency — call your New England Professional Numismatist toll-free: 800-225-6794 (in Massachusetts: 617-227-8800).

GRADING OF U.S. CURRENCY

FAIR	— Discernible as to type.	AU	— Shows traces of folds or creases and more obvious surface wrinkles. A choice example may border on CU, and display a circulation crease when viewed by reflected light.
G	— Heavy soiling, may have tears, worn design.	CU NOTE	— A Crisp Uncirculated note, has seen no circulation but may have some light fading, with some natural surface wrinkles. (Note: Early U.S. currency should not be board flat as most bundles were hand collated.) A hint of a teller's counting crease may exist, and currency may even have a pinhole or two. Still a Choice or Gem example depending upon centering, crispness and color.
VG	— Exhibits much wear but will be completely intact. No missing pieces, no major tears.	NEW NOTE	— Just as it came from the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. Choice or Gem depending upon vividness of color and centering.
F	— Well circulated but free of tears, usually has three or more folds. May be heavily soiled in places.
VF	— Retains much original brightness, but obvious breaks in ink at folds. Moderate to light soiling.
EF	— More obvious signs of circulation, obvious folds but no breaks in the ink. Moderate to light soiling.

Market Report

by Tim LaPointe

At the shows

In the weeks following the 1979 A.N.A. Convention (held July 29-August 2), few major coin shows were held. However, private trading among dealers and collectors continues to be strong. It seems that, month after month, new price records for quality rare coinage are set. Nor is this trend likely to abate — particularly with today's increasing inflation, and increasing awareness among investors of the advantages of tangibles.

Gold

Nowhere was this awareness more apparent than in this month's gold market. Gold bullion hit an incredible record high of $320.00 per ounce. Coinciding with this record-high price is an unprecedented demand for rare gold coinage. (A similar coincidence of record gold bullion prices and rare gold prices occurred in 1974 when gold bullion broke the $200.00 per ounce mark for the first time in its history.) Dealer demand is especially strong for gem-quality Indian Head Half Eagles and Indian Head Eagles. Recently, a 1915 Indian Head Eagle in MS-69 reportedly traded hands at a mid-4-figure price. New England sold an extremely rare 1907 Rolled Edge with Periods Indian Head Eagle for a mid-5-figure price. And, just prior to the A.N.A., $430,000.00 was paid for the Brasher Dubloon — the largest amount ever realized for a single gold coin. New England's numismatists report that, for virtually all gold coinage, "buy prices" coming in over nationwide teletype circuits are increasing daily.

Silver

Silver also continues to climb with bullion prices now topping $11.00 per ounce. This upward trend has helped to keep silver dollar prices from easing off, despite the expectations of some silver dollar dealers. As silver bullion climbs further, look for gem-quality silver dollars to make strong gains. Currently, Walking Liberty Half Dollars seem to be making gains daily — and dealers are experiencing increasing demand for Proof Walking Liberty Halves and Mercury Dimes. These coins are on the rise because of their currently moderate pricing and low mintage. However, with demand increasing, their prices will not remain moderate for long. The only silver coinage not making substantial gains are later-date Washington Quarters.

Other news

The demand for choice Nickel coinage is rising, with a great deal of attention being paid to gem Proof Buffalo Nickels of both types. The last of the inexpensive 19th century type coins, the 1883 No Cents Liberty

Nickel, is also experiencing a sharp upswing in demand. Investors have been scrambling recently for Uncirculated 1883's as well as the scarcer, underrated Proofs.

Commemorative prices, especially for silver Commemoratives, are rising, too. Foreign collectors seem particularly eager to buy U.S. Commemoratives because, relative to the market for foreign Commemoratives, U.S. Commemoratives remain a bargain.

I was very pleased to receive my order so promptly. However, I have returned the 1863 Indian Cent to ask a question concerning a definite seam or crack which appears to have a melted edge, extending from above the "E" in STATES to almost the point above the "O." This seam also appears to be a slightly different tint. It almost seems that a repair has been made. I would appreciate any information you could give me about this coin. — K.D., Silver Spring, MD

The seam on your particular specimen of the 1863 Indian Cent is a "cud" (or, as it is sometimes called, "broken die") error. Such errors occur when a piece of the die chips off around the die's rim. When a die chipped in this manner strikes a planchet, metal is forced into the chipped area, filling it, and creating the seam you see on your coin. A cud seam can be differentiated from a seam made by repair when you turn a coin over. Usually, a cud error will also effect the opposite side of the coin by weakening its design or lettering. This occurs because, when the planchet metal flows into the cud area, there is not enough metal left on the opposite side of the planchet to create a deep impression.

Cud errors have become popular collectors' items in the past few years. For additional information on cud errors, you might want to read The Design Cud by Mort Goodman.

I saw an advertisement recently that offered an "undated" Lafayette Commemorative $1 piece. Is this different from the 1900 Lafayette you offered in your catalog? If so, please tell me about the undated coin. — J.P., Dearborn, MI

There is only one Lafayette Commemorative Silver dollar. Its reverse features the inscription, "Paris, 1900." Most numismatists consider this to be the coin's "date." Technically speaking, however, a coin's "date" is supposed to reflect the year in which the coin was minted. The Lafayette Dollar was minted in 1899. 1900 was the year of its distribution. So, strictly speaking, this coin is "undated." However, you'll find that most dealers and collectors refer to the coin as "the 1900 Lafayette Commemorative."

The Lafayette Commemorative Dollar doesn't bear an 1899 date because its purpose was to commemorate a French-American exhibition to be held in 1900. And, in fact, U.S. Mint officials had originally planned to produce the coin in that same year. However, by mid-1899, French officials began to press the Mint for an early delivery of the coin. U.S. Mint officials complied and, on December 14, 1899, all of the Lafayette Commemoratives were struck.

In your (June) Market Report you mentioned a "Panama-Pacific 50¢ S-less Gold Piece" but, according to the Red Book, the Pan-Pac 50¢ is silver. Perhaps the gold piece you mentioned was some sort of Pattern? — D.B., Waverly, OH

The Panama-Pacific "S-less" Gold Piece offered at this year's ANA Auction was a trial piece, so you won't find it listed in the Red Book (A Guidebook of United States Coins by R.S. Yeoman). However, you will find it in J. Hewitt Judd's reference work, United States Patterns, Experimental and Trial Pieces. It is listed in that book as item #1793.

This particular piece was mentioned in our Market Report because of its extreme rarity. According to Judd, only 2 gold 50¢ Pan-Pac pieces were struck — both, presumably, at the Philadelphia Mint. One of those two pieces once belonged to King Farouk of Egypt and has since been polished. The other, offered at the ANA, is a beautiful specimen in Proof-65 condition with fully struck details (pictured here). Two other versions of the "S-less" Pan-Pac 50¢ piece were also struck: one in copper, the other in silver. Specimens of these two trial pieces were also offered at the '79 ANA Auction. Like their gold cousin, these pieces are also extremely rare. Only 2 or 3 silver "S-less" pieces were struck and, although about 6 copper pieces were struck, there are only 2 known in existence today.

Enjoyed very much your LaVere Redfield story in [the May issue of] Inventory Selections. He certainly seems like an unusual character. Did he collect any other coins besides Morgan Dollars? — L.O., Northville, MI

As we briefly mentioned in our initial article, part of the LaVere Redfield collection consisted of Peace Dollars. The great majority of his 407,283 coins were, however, Morgans. As far as we know, he owned no other numismatic pieces of any real value.

And yes, Mr. Redfield was a unique individual. There are many intriguing stories about him circulating around his home town of Reno, Nevada. Perhaps one of the most surprising is the story of Mr. Redfield's $50,000 bid at a local real estate auction. The auction was held outdoors in a tree-filled park — just the place for a picnic. So no one took any particular notice of Mr. Redfield when he bought a lunch and calmly began eating during the bidding. As the bidding progressed, the millionaire periodically looked up from his meal to proffer a bid. When the auction was finished, Mr. Redfield was announced as the successful bidder at $50,000. Mr. Redfield then rose, clutching his lunchbag, and walked to the auction table to claim his property. When he reached the table, he turned his bag upside down and coolly poured $50,000 onto the podium — every cent of it in cash!

But if there were times when Mr. Redfield liked to carry huge sums of money on his person, there were also times when he liked to carry very little. Reportedly, Mr. Redfield often borrowed $10 at a time from a female teller in a local bank to get himself through the day. (Mr. Redfield did not have an account at the bank.) A week later, the millionaire would pay the teller back and a week after that he'd be back to borrow another $10. This went on for quite some time until, one day, Mr. Redfield entered the bank to find the woman missing. Upon inquiring where she was, he was told that her daughter had fallen seriously ill. Mr. Redfield immediately rushed to the teller's home and handed her a blank check to cover any medical or travel expenses needed to cure the child.

The New England V.I.P.
Collection/Investment Plan

If you're thinking of investing $10,000 or more on high-quality rare coins, there are now extra-special reasons for talking with New England Rare Coin Galleries. You may be eligible for New England's new V.I.P. Collection/Investment Plan. And under this plan, every rare coin you purchase will be personally reviewed by New England's Executive Vice-President, Christopher Tracey, and by a special V.I.P. Review Board. Mr. Tracey will also help you plan and execute every phase of your rare coin acquisition strategy. Plus, you'll receive these New England V.I.P. extras:

- ☐ A HOTLINE TO THE VICE-PRESIDENT by which you can consult with Mr. Tracey personally.
- ☐ FREE YEARLY PORTFOLIO VALUATIONS conducted by the V.I.P. Review Board.
- ☐ HELP IN PLACING COINS IN KEOGH OR OTHER RETIREMENT PLANS so that you can use coins to build a more secure retirement.
- ☐ A GUARANTEED LOW COMMISSION RATE AT AUCTION. Any coins you sell at auction through New England Rare Coin Auctions will be liquidated for only a 15% commission rate.
- ☐ COLOR PHOTOS OF YOUR COINS so that you can better enjoy their beauty.
- ☐ FREE REFERENCE BOOKS on a myriad of numismatic topics.

In addition, for individuals who invest $20,000 or more, we'll fly you to Boston (if you so choose) for a personal look at New England's facilities and a consultation with our numismatists.

Our Complete Numismatic Services

1. Guarantees

☐ Grading

We guarantee that coins purchased from New England Rare Coin Galleries are graded accurately. They will meet our high standards whenever you decide to sell them. If you sell them to us, we guarantee to purchase them at the same grade as they were when originally purchased from us.

Our grading system is patterned after that of the American Numismatic Association. Developed in 1978, the A.N.A. System is rapidly being adopted by virtually the entire professional numismatic community. Its designations are:

Poor.....	1
Fair.....	2
About Good.....	3
Good.....	4,5
Very Good.....	8,10
Fine.....	12,15
Very Fine.....	20,25,30,35
Extremely Fine.....	40,45
About Uncirculated.....	50,55,58
Mint State.....	60,63,64,65,66,67,69,70
Proof.....	60,63,65,67,69,70

Slash grades indicate obverse/reverse designations. For example, a grade of 65/63 describes a coin with an obverse of Mint State 65 and a reverse of Mint State 63.

☐ Authenticity

We further guarantee that all coins sold by New England Rare Coin Galleries are authentic. To protect our customers, and as proof of our certainty that no altered or counterfeit coin can escape our attention, we guarantee to refund the full purchase price plus 15% compound annual interest, on any non-authentic coin acquired from us.

☐ Documentation

These guarantees are issued in writing with all coins purchased from New England Rare Coin Galleries. Each written guarantee is personally endorsed by two professional numismatists.

☐ Satisfaction

If, for any reason, you are not satisfied with your purchases, you may return them within 45 days of the date you received them for a full refund or replacement.
